Thursday, 9-29-11 - Featured Speakers

	Barbara Lorsbach, Senior VP, Member Relations, American Hospital Association will present a "Washington Update". With Congress serious about reducing the deficit and federal spending, all areas of spending will be under scrutiny—including Medicare and Medicaid. Hear the latest on the current Washington political environment and advocacy priorities. Also, get an update on delivery system reform and changes impacting hospitals and health systems.
	Joy Johnson Wilson, Senior Federal Affairs Counsel and Health Policy Director, National Conference of State Legislatures – Washington, DC Over a year has passed since the signing into law of the two health reform bills. Learn of the latest activities of the Obama Administration and Congress, the states and the courts regarding the implementation of some of the key provisions of the new laws.
	Greg Schwem - "Comedy With a Byte" - You might not think health care is funny but Greg Schwem does. Come laugh at all the nuances of our field that drive us crazy including HIPAA regulations, nonsensical insurance forms, newfangled technologies and AFE's (Acronyms for Everything) with the speaker the Chicago Tribune called "king of the hill in the world of corporate comedy."

Friday, 9-30-11 - Featured Speaker for ACHE Breakfast

	Gayle Capozzallo, Chair-Elect for ACHE – Ms. Capozzallo is the Executive Vice President, Strategy and System Development of Yale New Haven Health System. She joined the System in 1997 and is responsible for System integration, standardization and consolidation, mergers and acquisitions, strategy development and execution, performance management, physician alignment, and numerous corporate services, including supply chain and numerous corporate services.
