

Patient Safety Education Day Evaluation Tool for Speakers and Presenters

Program Title: _____

Date: _____

Instructions: Please be as honest and objective as possible.

Rate the extent to which the objectives were met by circling the appropriate number.

I. Learner's achievement of each objective	Met					Not Met
1. Provide examples of systems problems that stimulate discussion of opportunities for improvement.	5	4	3	2	1
	5	4	3	2	1
2. Increase knowledge of the types of errors and their consequences.

Rate the teaching expertise of the presenter/s.

II. Evaluation of the presenter	Excellent	Satisfactory	Poor
1. Speaker's Name
Speaker's expertise enhanced the activity.
Teaching strategies were appropriate for the objectives and content.

Rate the extent to which the objectives were met by circling the appropriate number.

III. Learner's achievement of each objective	Met					Not Met
Presentation
1. Describe the significance of reporting near miss events.	5	4	3	2	1
	5	4	3	2	1
2. Describe the complexity of contributing factors that lead to accidents.

Rate the teaching expertise of the presenter/s.

IV. Evaluation of the presenter	Excellent	Satisfactory	Poor
1. Speaker's Name
Speaker's expertise enhanced the activity.
Teaching strategies were appropriate for the objectives and content.

Rate the relevance of the objectives to overall purpose/goals.

V. Relevance of objectives to overall purpose/goals of the educational activity.	Yes, Related	Yes, Partially Related	No, Not Related
The purpose of this program is to provide healthcare providers with a greater understanding of patient safety and strategies to reduce the risk of medical error

VI. Physical Facilities	Agree	Neutral	Disagree
Were conducive to learning
Were easily accessible (location)
VII. Scheduling
Time of day was appropriate
Length of program was appropriate

Comments: _____
